SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of:

20 YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: OLIVER STEWART REING
CASE NUMBER: 3:20-CR-00028-001-SLG

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DEFENDANT: OLIVER STEWART REING
CASE NUMBER: 3:20-CR-00028-001-SLG

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall have no contact with any person under the age of 18 years without adult supervision nor attempt contact except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer in consultation with the defendant's treatment provider.
2. The defendant shall conform with sex offender registration laws and other laws which exist in any jurisdiction where he resides or visits, within 24 hours of release on supervision or any change in circumstances.
3. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or internet capable device without the expressed written permission of his probation officer. If authorized by the probation officer to have access to a computer device, the defendant shall agree to and allow the installation of monitoring software/hardware on the device(s). The defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any monitoring program. The defendant shall permit routine inspection of his computer device(s) or any other computer system maintained at the defendant's residence to include, but not limited to, external hard-drives, thumb drives, gaming systems, and/or cloud storage under his control. The inspection shall be no more intrusive than is necessary to ensure compliance with the defendant's conditions of supervision. Failure to strictly adhere to this condition may be grounds for revocation.
4. The defendant shall not seek employment, engage in leisure activities or loiter near places designated primarily for minors such as schools and playgrounds, which may bring the defendant into unsupervised contact with any person under the age of 18 years. Contact is defined as any transaction occurring face to face, over the telephone, via mail, over the internet, and any third party communication.
5. You shall notify the U.S. Probation Officer prior to participation in any online social environment (i.e. Facebook, Twitter, Second Life, LinkedIn, Craigslist, Facetime, WhatsApp, video/audio, etc.).
6. You shall participate in a program of treatment for sexual disorders, including periodic polygraph examinations, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer. The Court authorizes the release of the presentence report and available psychological evaluations to the treatment provider, as approved by the U.S. Probation Officer.
7. The defendant shall not possess any obscene material, child pornography, child erotica, or nude images of minors. Any such material found in the defendant's possession shall be considered contraband and may be confiscated by the U.S. Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall submit to the search by the U.S. Probation Officer of his person, vehicle, office/business, residence, and property including any computer systems and internet enabled devices, whenever the U.S. Probation Officer had reasonable suspicion that a violation of a condition of supervision or other unlawful conduct may have occurred or be underway involving the defendant. Other law enforcement may assist as necessary. The defendant shall submit to the seizure of contraband found by the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant shall warn other occupants the premises may be subject to searches.
9. The defendant shall obtain a sex offender assessment as directed by the probation officer; the defendant has the discretion to choose any qualified provider for the assessment; and defendant shall participate in a program of sex offender treatment, as directed by the treatment provider, until such time as he is released from the program. This assessment and treatment may include polygraph testing to assist in planning, case monitoring, and supervision. Counsel for the defendant shall be notified of any other form of physiological testing recommended by a treatment provider before such testing shall be implemented to allow sufficient time for counsel to object if deemed appropriate. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or tests as scheduled, absent good cause, is a violation of the conditions of release. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in treatment and sign any necessary releases for any records imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the supervising United States Probation Officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider(s).
10. The defendant shall have no contact with the victims, including correspondence, telephone contact, or communication through a third party except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer in
